Dear Client,

Thank you for choosing Schroeder Shots for your product photography needs. Your items will be photographed and edited photos posted within seven (7) days of receiving your package. Once the photos are uploaded to your secured page on our website you will receive an email (to the address listed on this form) with the web address and access codes. After you review the images contact us by email for any reshoot requests (one reshoot per item at no charge). Once you have approved the images contact us and your items will be promptly returned to you using your enclosed shipping label (or local pick-up).

When shipping be sure to individually wrap each item and protect the contents properly. Schroeder Shots will not assume any responsibility for damaged or lost items during shipping.

Again, thank you for choosing Schroeder Shots we look forward to providing professional services at affordable prices for your photography needs.

Sincerely,
